

Don't do away with FM translators. K-LOVE serves my area with one and we listen to it exclusively. Our community would lose the only Christian broadcasting station we have access to. It is uplifting, positive, true, and practical. We need it as it encourages people to do what is right and provides clean music and words to live by.